Formal structure of meromorphic connections in several variables

Yves André

CNRS – ENS, Paris

We shall explain and sketch a proof of a conjecture of C. Sabbah concerning the formal structure of integrable meromorphic connections in two variables (along the polar divisor). If time permits, we shall also indicate an application to the semi-continuity of the Newton polygon in a family of meromorphic differential equations coming from an integrable connection.