Note. The tasks of the contribution's leading author are coloured in red.

Nomenclatures:

IS = invitations to selected authors are sent out (authors are requested to send an outline of their contribution)

Sc = Submission of contribution's outline (This format also requires that authors provide a list of suggested reviewers),

N= Nominated examiners are invited to review papers,

1Sv = date to submit first version of contribution,

1PsR = first versions of papers are sent out for reviewing,

1Rrr = reviewers return first round of reviews

1Rrso = results of "1Rrr" are forwarded to the authors

2Sv = second (expectedly, final) submission after reviewers' comments have been addressed

2PsR = second versions of papers are sent out for reviewing,

2Rrr = reviewers return second round of reviews,

2Rrso = results of "2Rrr" are forwarded to the authors

D = last day to send final amended versions. Once papers are received, the guest editor along with the invited editors will decide as to what papers will and will not be part of the special issue.

*** = the journal's internal tasks: style correction, formatting according to journal's template (via Latex), edition and printing (it usually takes 2~3 months).

- Both the outline and other versions of the manuscript should be sent via email to Fernando Marmolejo-Ramos (fernando.marmolejoramos@adelaide.edu.au)
- It's expected the special issue be published in December 2014.
