

Monetary Utility Functions and non-linear PDE

Freddy Delbaen

(ETH, Zürich)

Using the structure of time consistent utility functions we will show that there is a relation with non-linear PDE and BSDE. If the driver is not sub-quadratic, existence and uniqueness of solutions is not guaranteed. In the special case of Markov processes we will give an example where the PDE has non-unique solution.